

IWN DELHI STATE

CHAIRWOMAN'S MESSAGE

Yes, "Women are game changers in a complex world". The Indian Women Network (IWN), an initiative of Confederation of Indian Industry aspire to create a conducive atmosphere for women to make them active in business and provide more opportunities in different fields. I am happy to be Chairing the Delhi Chapter of IWN, where we are working very closely with women of the State to provide them with a platform to discuss issues and opportunities at work places and learn from each other's experiences. Idea is to provide hand-holding and exposure to the women for their exponential growth in their respective felid.

Radha Bhatia
Chairwoman,
